

Apollo University Partners with Newcastle University, Australia

TAU has signed an MoU with The University of Newcastle, Australia, on 17th February 2025, marking a significant step in academic collaboration and global engagement. This partnership aims for joint research initiatives and facilitate articulation mapping, enabling postgraduate pathways for Apollo University graduates to pursue advanced studies at The University of Newcastle in Australia and Singapore. Both institutions will work towards strengthening research and academic ties, paving the way for impactful collaborations between India and Australia.

Apollo Knowledge City Celebrates Founders Day 2025

AKC marked Founders Day 2025 with a week-long tribute to Dr. Prathap C. Reddy. The celebrations included a Sports Meet for the staffs, a Wish Tree, a Photo Exhibition on the evolution of the campus, and a massive Human Chain Tribute. A blood donation drive collected 139 units, while community outreach initiatives supported hospitals and orphanages. The event concluded with a virtual session connecting to the official Founders Day celebrations at Apollo Hospitals, Chennai.

National Science Day 2025

The Apollo University marked National Science Day with a vibrant exhibition of 175 innovative projects from 500 students across 70 schools in Chittoor. Keynote addresses inspired young minds, while winners were awarded with cash prizes. The event was a celebration of scientific curiosity and innovation for societal impact.

On National Science Day AIMSRS students visited the IISER campus in Tirupathi on 28th Feb 2025.

TAU & ACoN Completed Final Phase of ISO 21001 Training

The Apollo University (TAU) and Apollo College of Nursing (ACoN) successfully concluded the final phase of ISO 21001 training with BSI, including comprehensive sessions on internal audit and quality management standards.

TAU and AIMSRS Join Hands for Academic & Research Collaboration

The Apollo University and Apollo Institute of Medical Sciences and Research (AIMSR) has partnered to collaborate in education, research, and training. The MoU will enable knowledge exchange, collaborative outreach programs, and mutual recognition of academic expertise, to enhance curriculum development, internships and placements.

ASWBC Hosts 'The Art of Mentorship' Workshop for Faculty

Apollo's Wellbeing Centre organized a two-day workshop on February 21-22, 2025, to enhance faculty mentorship skills at The Apollo University.

Led by Dr. N. S. Vishnu Priya, Associate Professor, VIT the sessions focused on effective mentoring strategies and student engagement. Inaugurated by Prof. M. Potharaju, the workshop featured interactive activities, case studies, and practical insights to strengthen mentorship on campus.

Graduation Day 2K19

Apollo Institute of Medical Sciences and Research (AIMSR) hosted the Graduation Day for the 2019 batch on February 21, 2025. Dr. Poornima Baliga, Pro Vice Chancellor of SGT University, Gurgaon, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest and congratulated the graduates as they stepped into their medical careers.

ACoN Hosts Freshers' Day 2025

Apollo College of Nursing, Chittoor, welcomed its new batch with a lively Freshers' Day on February 25, 2025. The event featured energetic performances, the batch name declaration as "Rovanzers". The Chief Guest was Dr. Sachidananda Adiga, Professor and HOD of Pharmacology, AIMSRS.

Students Participation

Twenty-two B.Sc. MLT students from The Apollo University, actively participated in the EDULABCON International Conference 2025 at MMM College, Chennai, on February 5.

Four teams from School of Technology have participated in National Level Project Competition "Anveshan-2024" held in M.S.Ramaiah University, Bangalore on 20th & 21st February 2025.