

Symposium on MRI: Advancing Knowledge in Imaging Technology

The Department of Imaging Technology at The Apollo University organized a successful MRI symposium on March 1, 2025, attracting 205 students, including 85 from The Apollo University and 120 from Tirupati and Vellore. Renowned experts, Prof. Panneer Selvam, from SRIHER and Ms. D. Rajitha, MSRUAS, led insightful discussions on MRI principles, emerging technologies, and clinical applications.

Central Research Lab Boosts AIMSR's Research Ambitions

AIMSR, Chittoor, inaugurated its Central Research Laboratory, focusing on Molecular Genetics, Bioinformatics, and Machine Learning. This signifies a major achievement, following over 50 Scopus-indexed publications in 2024 and a goal of 100 in 2025. The lab, led by Dr. Usha Adiga, Head of Biochemistry, aims to drive research excellence in these fields.

Tata Elxsi Hosts Mock Interviews at TAU

DoT&P, TAU partnered with Tata Elxsi for a Mock Interview Program on March 15, 2025, for pre-final year students of the School of Technology. The program, part of Tata Elxsi's CSR initiative, involved 102 students undergoing technical and HR assessments by 10 experts.

Inventory Workshop Held at ACoN

A workshop on Inventory Management was conducted on March 28, at GH Hospital organised by ACoN, attracting participation from 78 faculty members. Attendees included 36 participants from GH, 16 government faculty, 11 from ACON (Chittoor campus), 10 from AACON, and 5 from Aragonda Hospital.

Concepts to Creations: Design Workshop

The DoP&P with the Media and Photography Clubs, conducted a hands-on training workshop on design principles, equipping students and non-teaching staff with creative and technical skills.

AIPS Hosts Workshop on JMPPRO for Research

AIPS, in collaboration with JMP Learning Academy, conducted a hands-on workshop on JMPPRO, equipping participants with skills in data visualization, predictive modeling, and pharmaceutical analytics.

ICMR Grants for TAU Professor

Dr. R. Satyanarayana, Professor and HoD, SoHS, has been sanctioned two research projects worth ₹2 lakhs each—one as Principal Investigator by the Model Rural Health Research Unit, ICMR, Chandragiri, and another as Co-Principal Investigator by the Multi-Disciplinary Research Unit, ICMR, Tirupati.

Campus Observance Days Roundup

International Women's Day at TAU was celebrated with a health check-up camp, inspiring talks by Chief Guest Mrs. Anjali Naren Tirumala, Women Entrepreneur, and Guest of Honour, Dr. Parvati Bhat, Former Professor of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, MAHE. The event also featured cultural performances and a felicitation ceremony honoring women's contributions.

Organized by AWEC, led by Dr. Shaik Haseena, Convenor and Faculty, School of Health Sciences, The event centered around the areas of self-care, empowerment, and inclusivity.

Additionally, AWEC conducted a self-defence workshop for women equipping participants with essential safety skills.

World Kidney Day and World Optometry Day

TAU and ACoN observed World Kidney Day on March 11th and 14th. The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Dr. H. Vinod Bhat, was the Chief Guest of the day and in his address, Dr. Bhat emphasized the crucial role of proactive kidney care in leading a healthy life.

On March 22, the Department of Optometry, Division of AHS marked World Optometry Day with a seminar on "Dispensing Optics and Zeiss Advancements," highlighting innovations in lens technology and practical applications. The guest speaker was Mr. Vikranth Labishetty, who is a Training Specialist at Carl Zeiss, Bangalore.

World TB Day: Awareness & Skill Building

The School of Management observed World TB Day 2025 with a lecture on TB prevention by Dr. Ranganath B.G., Medical Superintendent, AIMSR emphasizing early detection and immune health.

The event also marked the launch of the Lean Six Sigma Training Program in collaboration with Anexas-Europe, providing MBA Healthcare students with quality control and process optimization skills, culminating in a Green Belt certification.

ACoN, in collaboration with AACON and SVCON, observed World TB Day with attractive student performances including thought-provoking speeches, and a powerful mime act.

Arts and Cultural Club Celebrates the Timeless Magic of Theatre

The Arts and Cultural Club celebrated World Theatre Day with engaging performances and reflections on theatre's cultural significance. The event showcased powerful acts and tributes, emphasizing the art form's role in storytelling and self-expression.