First-Ever Fully Funded International Internships for TAU Students

TAU takes pride in announcing the success of the M.Sc. Health Informatics and Analytics students achieving their remarkable internship milestones. Ms. N. Vasavi and Ms. V. Vasudha Reddy have secured the notable internships at the prestigious Monash University, Australia with full financial support of $1900 for airfare and living allowance. Congratulations to the students on their achievement.
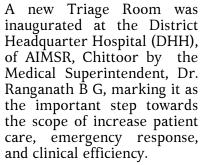

Guest Lecture: Dr. Anupam Sibal, Senior Consultant Pediatric Gastroenterologist and Hepatologist at Indraprastha Apollo Hospitals and Group Medical Director of Apollo Hospitals Group, addressed the postgraduate and undergraduate students, along with all faculty members of AKC.

CME

The Department of General Surgery, AIMSR, Chittor has hosted a Continuing Medical Education (CME) session on the topic "Minimally Invasive Surgery" offering valuable insights and updates in the area of surgical techniques.

Inauguration

A new Triage Room was inaugurated at the District Headquarter Hospital (DHH), of AIMSR, Chittoor by the Medical Superintendent, Dr. Ranganath B G, marking it as the important step towards the scope of increase patient care, emergency response, and clinical efficiency.

TAU has inaugurated its most modern Computer Lab for the School of Technology at the Dr. Prathap C. Reddy Knowledge Centre. Launched by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Dr. H. Vinod Bhat, the lab is designed as a hub for coding, research, and innovation.

AI Hackathon: TAU Joins AP Police Effort

First-year B.Tech CE(SE) students from SoT participated in the AI4Andhra Police Hackathon, developing an AI solution for analyzing multilingual news feeds for public safety. Team Tech SyndiKate's work impressed Home Minister Vangalapudi Anitha, who praised its potential for enhancing police intelligence and public safety.

AKC Yogotsav 2025 Ends on a High Note with 1,200 Participants in Mass Yoga Event

AKC Yogotsav 2025 at AKC concluded on a powerful note on June 21st, with over 1,200 participants joining a mass yoga demonstration marking International Yoga Day.

Key highlights included:

- Certificate Program on Foundations of Yoga in collaboration with SKY Yoga, Tirupati.
- Outreach event, "Introducing Yoga to Young Minds," at the Government School in Chittoor.
- "Inner Stillness" Meditation Session in partnership with Isha Foundation, Chittoor.
- Leadership and training by 67 student yoga trainers under Dr. Kavitha S. and Mr. Dilip, Faculty and Student Coordinator, Yoga and Meditation Club.

Final Stage II Audit for ISO 21001:2018 Completed

ACoN has successfully completed the 2nd stage ISO audit conducted by BSI, affirming its commitment to quality assurance in academics and support services.

Faculty Development Programs

DoAA, TAU and HR department, AKC hosted a Faculty Development Programme (FDP) titled "System-Based Approach in Education and Principles of Adult Learning" under the Interprofessional Upskilling Program (IUP). Facilitated by Dr. Ramya Ramakrishnan, Associate Dean and Dr. A. Kishore, Professor of Microbiology from AIMSR, the session inspired 30+ faculty to explore modern pedagogies and rethink their teaching approach.

A series of FDPs at AIMSR, Chittoor, brought fresh perspectives to teaching and assessment practices. Dr. P. Dinesh, Professor of Psychiatry, conducted an FDP on the "Principles of Formative Assessments," emphasizing effective strategies for evaluating student learning. and Dr. Sravana Deepthi, Associate Professor of Community Medicine and MEU member, led an engaging session on "Gamification – A Novel Teaching Learning Method," highlighting creative approaches to boost student participation and learning outcomes.

Campus Observance Days Roundup

The Eco Club at The Apollo University held discussions of plastic pollution and green initiatives, to host the observance of World Environment Day. The Readers Club commemorated National Reading Day through tributes and presentations before a fun quiz to promote reading culture among students.

Safe Campus: The Department of Psychology and the NSS Unit organized impactful anti-drug awareness activities, including classroom sensitization sessions and an expert talk marking the International Day Against Drug Abuse.