

Connectomics 2025 – Advancing Frontiers in Precision Medicine

The Central Research Laboratory for Molecular Genetics, Bioinformatics, and Machine Learning, AIMS, Chittoor, successfully organized Connectomics 2025, a national conference uniting 128 participants, 11 national, and 3 international speakers to explore cutting-edge advances in precision medicine. The event was preceded by two pre-conference workshops on the topics Pharmacogenomics and Bioinformatics, with 30 participants each.

ECO Inauguration of Vividha -Pulse of Campus

On 5th July 2025, TAU inaugurated Vividha, a vibrant new hub for clubs, culture, and campus sustainability, by the Honorable Vice Chancellor Dr. H. Vinod Bhat and the Registrar Prof. M. Potharaju. With themed halls and green sparks, the initiative was led by the Eco, Event Management Clubs and the NSS Unit, Vividha marks a new era of student-driven activities.

Beyond Code and Circuits: The Power of Soft Skills

SoT has organized a Student Development Program on The Soft Side of Engineering: Key Skills for Success on 4th July emphasizing the critical role of communication, in engineering careers. The session, was led by Dr. S. V. Ramesh Kumar, Lecturer in English, from Government Degree College, Pakala, left students inspired to view the soft skills as essential tools for long-term success.

ACCC Sharpens Life-Saving Skills: Over 50 doctors took part in the Acute Critical Care Course (ACCC) held at AIMS, Chittoor on 5th & 6th July, a hands-on workshop designed to sharpen critical, time-sensitive medical skills where every second can save a life.

Patience over Prescription -Workshop

On 25th July 2025, the Department of Psychology at TAU organized a thought-provoking awareness lecture on schizophrenia, aiming to dispel myths and inspire compassion-driven mental health practices among future psychology professionals.

First Alumni Meet: ACoN had hosted its first Alumni Meet – NEXUS 2025 on 11th July, reuniting graduates from 2017 to 2019 batches in a memorable gathering.

Faculty Achievement: We are proud to share that Dr. Asha P. Johnson, Assistant Professor at AIPS, has been awarded the Dr. P.D. Patil National Level Best Ph.D. Thesis Award–2024 in recognition of her outstanding Ph.D. research and exceptional contribution to pharmaceutical sciences.

ACoN Hosts APNMC-Credited OT Training

The Apollo College of Nursing, Chittoor, hosted a State Level Workshop on “Hands-on Training in Operation Theatre Nursing” on 26th & 27th July 2025, with 614 participants gaining practical expertise from leading Apollo Hospitals, and AIMS, Chittoor. The workshop, inaugurated by the distinguished dignitaries, and was accredited with the credit points by the APNMC emphasised about skill development, innovation, and excellence in OT nursing.

Workshop Fuels Physio Startup Dreams

The Faculty of Physiotherapy, SoHS, TAU, successfully hosted a two-day workshop, “Therapy to Tech: Physio Startups & Intellectual Property Demystified,” on 14–15 July 2025, empowering physiotherapists with knowledge on innovation, startups, and intellectual property in healthcare.

Ethics at the Core: AIMS Hosted In-Depth Training

On 19th July 2025, AIMS, Chittoor, organized a one-day Ethics Workshop for postgraduate students and faculty. Expert sessions were delivered by specialists, Dr. Ranganath B.G., Professor of Community Medicine and Medical Superintendent, AIMS, Chittoor, Dr. Animesh Jain, Professor, Department of Community Medicine; and Dr. Ashok Shenoy K, Professor, Department of Pharmacology, who shared valuable insights on medical ethics, professional conduct, and good clinical practices.

World Population Day & NSS Scarf Ceremony

NSS Units I & II observed World Population Day on 11th July, 2025 and conducted the Scarf Distribution Ceremony on 26th July 2025, for promoting social responsibility and service-driven leadership among students.

Campus Clubs Roundup

New Clubs Inauguration: Three of the new Clubs was inaugurated in the last month. Arts and Cultural Club marked a milestone in campus life with the splendid inauguration of three dynamic new clubs – the Dance Club, Musical Instruments Club, and Vocal Club.

The Readers’ Club held an interactive session on the power of reading, with Dr. H. Vinod Bhat, inspiring the students through a discussion on Tilo’s Troops and the lifelong value of books.

The Trekking Club Orientation on 5th July 2025 inspired students through powerful insights by Dr. Alfred J Augustine, Dean, AIMS, highlighting trekking as a path to resilience, teamwork, and personal growth.

An awareness session on Organ Donation – Angdaan Jeevandan was conducted on 29th July 2025, with Dr. M. L. Ramya Krishna, Faculty SoHS delivering a guest lecture at PCR Government Junior College in collaboration with TAU’s Health Club.