

Chancellor Lights the Path for the Next Generation of Change-Makers

On August 24, 2025, Dr. Prathap C. Reddy, Chancellor and the Founder-Chairman of the Apollo Hospitals Groups, addressed students across all disciplines at Apollo Knowledge City, inspiring them with his vision of India becoming the world's health capital. He emphasized how students of AKC can carry forward his vision of making India the health capital of the world. He inspired students to write the next great chapter of healthcare here in India.

The Apollo University Launches EWYL Program

The Apollo University launched the "Earn While You Learn Scheme" on August 23, 2025, selecting 19 students from 209 applicants for internships across various university departments. The initiative allows students to work up to 8 hours weekly while maintaining academic focus, skills and professional development.

Adhyay 2025: Induction for Class 2025-26 at TAU

TAU concluded its two-week induction programme "Adhyay 2025" Phase I, II and III for the Class of 2025-26. The programme immersed students in TAU's systems, services, and campus culture, marking the first chapter of their university life. The induction of its first cohort into the 2+1 B Eng Computer Science Pathway Programme, launched in collaboration with the University of Leicester, UK, was also conducted.

Ethical Hacking Workshop: SoT conducted a hands-on workshop on ethical hacking and cyber defense from August 28, 2025, led by expert Mr. Srujan Atluri, CEO of GIR Technologies. The session covered topics like cybersecurity practices and hackathon simulations.

Pre-placement Talk: TAU hosted a pre-placement talk on August 5 by Dr. Lavanam Amballa, Head, People and Culture from Vivnovation, who guided graduating students on employability skills and interview strategies that the company expects during placements.

Jeevandan AP Awareness at AIMSR

The Department of Anatomy, AIMSR, Chittoor, observed the 15th Indian Organ Donation Day on 13th August under the Jeevandan AP scheme as part of "Angdaan-Jeevan Sanjeevani Abhiyaan -the national campaign.

The Department of Psychology, TAU, in collaboration with the Institutional Ethics Committee, AIMSR, conducted a 2 day workshop on "The Art of Research: Designing a Research Protocol and Submitting for Ethical Approval" on 13th and 14th August.

Industrial Visit: AIPS students visited Toxgene AR Biolab, Tirupati, gaining practical exposure to advanced preclinical and toxicological research.

TAU and ACoN are certified for ISO 21001:2018

TAU and ACoN hosted its ISO 21001:2018, EOMS certification hand-over ceremony on August 1, 2025. The event was presided over by the Vice Chancellor Dr. H. Vinod Bhat and awarded by the BSI Director Mr. Mahesh Malpathak to leaders in the presence of Dr. K Prabakar Distinguished Professor, who guided the process at TAU. Certificates were handed over to The Registrar, Prof. M Potharaju, and Dean, Dr. Mala Thayumanavan, who led the process at ACoN during the event.

PHYSIOQUEST 2025

The Department of Physiology at AIMSR, Chittoor, successfully organized PHYSIOQUEST 2025 on 7th August where the first-year MBBS students showcased their skills through models, informative charts, and expressive presentations. With the active participation of 150 students, the competition highlighted creativity, critical thinking, and a strong grasp of physiological concepts.

Independence Day: AKC celebrated Independence Day with a vibrant blend of ceremonial honors, inspiring addresses, cultural performances, and creative club activities that showcased patriotism and community spirit across the campus.

ACoN observed Breastfeeding Week at the District Headquarters Hospital, Chittoor, with a series of awareness programs, exhibitions, student presentations, and interactive sessions to promote the importance and benefits of exclusive breastfeeding.

NSS Units I & II observed World Population Day on 11th July, 2025 and conducted the Scarf Distribution Ceremony on 26th July 2025, for promoting social responsibility and service-driven leadership.

Campus Clubs Roundup

The Theatre and Drama Club staged a powerful anti-ragging awareness skit, sensitising the students on the zero-tolerance policy towards ragging.

New Clubs Inauguration: The Apollo University inaugurated six new student clubs in August 2025 — Coding, Career Catalyst, Public Speaking, Fine Arts, Craft, and the Theatre & Drama — bringing the total number of active clubs to 28.

The Eco Club organized "Eco-Inspire: Nature and Wildlife" with young herpetologist Mr. Ishan Shanavas.

Reader's Club celebrated National Librarian's Day, and the Photography Club marked World Photography Day with creative activities and an online session with wildlife photographer Prof. Dr. R. Prasanna.