

International Transfer Programme

TAU achieved a milestone on September 1, 2025, with the launch of its 2+1 B Eng Computer Science - an International Transfer Programme with the University of Leicester, UK. Following the induction, the students had their first academic interaction on September 3rd with UoL professors— Prof. Henrietta O'Connor, Pro-VC, Prof. Leena Sodha, and Prof. Roy Crole— who shared insights on global learning, summer school, adaptability, and mentorship.

Patient Safety: National Pharmacovigilance Week

AKC celebrated National Pharmacovigilance Week with the theme “Pharmacovigilance – A Key Tool for Public Safety,” featuring 13 events on patient safety and ethical healthcare practices. Students participated in the skits, street plays, poster exhibition, and the awareness campaign organised by the department of Pharmacology, AIMS, in collaboration with SoHS - TAU, and ACoN.

National Sports Day: TAU celebrated National Sports Day from 29th-2nd September with Kabaddi, Kho-Kho, Tug of War, and 50m races for boys and girls, where students across schools and departments showcased teamwork, fitness, and sportsmanship.

World Pharmacists Day: AIPS celebrated the World Pharmacists Day with speeches, a video presentation on pharmacists' global significance, and a students skit promoting rational drug use and public health care.

SoM in collaboration with AIMS, observed World Patient Safety Day 2025 under the theme “Safe Care for Every Newborn and Every Child,” including an expert lecture by Dr. V. Rajesh Kumar, Professor of Paediatrics, AIMS.

PHYSIOFIVESTA 2025 at AHS, TAU, was held from 8th to 12th September, showcasing activities such as Physio Camp, rally, quizzes, skits, e-posters, fitness challenges, and Zumba sessions to promote healthy aging and frailty prevention, engaging students and staff.

The Leaders Club conducted the Young Leaders Dialogue 2025 highlighting the “Viksit Bharat Quiz 2026” and “Build Young Leaders India 2047” initiatives to inspire civic awareness, and national development.

SoT held a two-day workshop on “Robotics Using Arduino,” empowering students with practical skills in robotics and innovation to advance the healthcare and technology.

Teachers' Day 2025 at Apollo Knowledge City

Teachers' Day 2025 was celebrated with great admiration and enthusiasm across AIMS, TAU and ACoN remembering the mentors who shaped future healthcare professionals. The week also included a faculty sports fest at AIMS, adding a spirit of friendship and celebration to the occasion across the AKC campus.

World Suicide Prevention Day 2025 at AKC

On the occasion of World Suicide Prevention Day, observed on 10th September 2025, the Department of Psychiatry, AIMS, with the NSS Unit of Apollo College of Nursing, Chittoor, organized a public awareness rally and sensitization lecture at DHH-AIMS, Chittoor. The ASWBC and Department of Psychology of TAU, in association with the APA, India, hosted an awareness session and poster competition on the theme “Changing Narratives on Suicide.”

APOLLOPEX 2025: The Philatelic Club, TAU in collaboration with the Manipal Philatelic & Numismatics Club, organized Apollopex 2025 – The Stamp Expo on 20th September at AKC, showcasing 60 philatelic frames, rare collectibles, and India Post stalls. the event drew nearly 5,000 visitors, blending history and culture, into a celebration of philately.

The Faculty Leadership Development Workshop – Part II, held on 10th and 11th September at AIMS, engaged participants in project-based learning under the guidance of Prof. Ravi Mahajan, Director – Critical Care Integration & Transformation, Apollo Hospitals, and Dr. Jugnu Mahajan, Director, Clinical Transformation of Apollo Society Clinics enabling them to lead 3–6 month campus-benefiting initiatives with measurable outcomes.

Swasth Nari, Sashakt Parivar Abhiyaan Campaign

The “Swasth Nari, Sashakt Parivar Abhiyaan – Healthy Women, Empowered Families” campaign was launched at DHH, AIMS, Chittoor, in participation with ACoN, on women's wellness in honor of the PM's birthday. The campaign continued until 2nd October, focusing health awareness and empowerment for women and families.

Prestigious Oration Award 2025

Dr. Jayanthi Tarugu, Principal, ACoN, was conferred the the prestigious P. Chadalavada Sri Lakshmi Oration Award 2025 by the Trained Nurses Association of India on 25th September 2025 during its 31st Biennial Conference. The award recognizes her oratory skills and contributions to nursing education.

Prarambh 2025 at TAU on 5th and 6th September welcomed freshers with interactive games, cultural performances, flash mobs, and the “Mr. & Ms. Fresher” contest, alongside the release of Club Chronicle V2 creating a vibrant and memorable campus experience