

One-Day National Seminar on Healthcare Management Explores Emerging Trends

SoM, TAU, organized a One Day National Seminar on Healthcare Management on 20th December 2025 with the participation of students, faculty, research scholars, healthcare professionals, and academicians from various institutions. Seminar spotlighted expert keynote addresses, technical sessions, paper presentations and a panel discussion on emerging trends, quality standards, digital health, and hospital accreditation, providing strong industry-academia insights.

ACoN Cleared Inspection for Seat Enhancement

ACoN, successfully completed the statutory inspection on December 16th for the proposed enhancement of First Year B.Sc Nursing seats from 100 to 200, with inspectors from Dr. NTR University of Health Sciences, and APNMC verifying infrastructure, faculty, clinical training, and compliance with regulatory norms. The inspection confirmed the college's readiness for expansion.

Global Diplomacy Meet 2025: AMUN Club hosted the Apollo Global Diplomacy Meet 2025 on 6th December where students engaged in a human rights simulation on minority protection, particularly in Sudan, demonstrating research, debate, and policy-drafting skills.

Basic Course in Medical Education for Faculty

The Basic Course in Medical Education (BCME) was conducted by AIMSRS for faculty members at the Seminar Hall, PCRKC, from 2-4th December 2025. The program was observed by Dr. I. Ramya, Professor of General Medicine, from the Nodal Centre, CMC Vellore.

Student Achievements

International Internship: Two students from the M.Sc. Health Informatics and Analytics (2024 batch) Dr. N. Vasavi and Ms. V. Vasudha Reddy, have begun their final semester projects at Monash University, Australia, working on Digital Therapeutics and Health Data Analytics and benefiting from international research collaboration and global experiential learning.

Students of I B.Tech (AI & Data Science), SoT won First Prize at the national-level hackathon "MindSprint-2025" held at PSCMR College of Engineering and Technology, Vijayawada, for their AI-based healthcare solution "Aarogyamitra." The application, was appreciated for its early symptom analysis capability and social impact, particularly in rural healthcare.

MBBS students of the 2024 batch, Deekshitha, Lishitha and Chaturya from AIMSRS secured three second prizes at the AP State Level Quiz Competition in Physiology held at Sri Padmavathi Medical College, SVIMS, Tirupati, on 11th December 2025.

Session on Substance Abuse & Cybercrime Control

AKC Campus organized an awareness programme titled "Substance Abuse – The Silent Crisis" on 10th December to address the growing concern of drug abuse among youth. The programme was attended and addresses by Shri Gurajala Jagan Mohan Naidu, Hon'ble MLA, along with police officials and civic leaders, who emphasized discipline, legal awareness, and social responsibility in combating substance abuse.

SoT organized a Cybercrime Control Awareness Session on 15th December, highlighting a guest lecture on Cyber Security and Artificial Intelligence by Mr. S. Madhusudhana Rao, Deputy Director General / Scientist G, National Informatics Centre (NIC), Vijayawada, highlighting the role of public awareness and AI-driven solutions in combating cybercrime.

International Visit

TAU hosted faculty members from its international partner, the University of Leicester (UoL), UK - Prof. Leena Sodha, Head, School of Computing and Mathematical Sciences, and Dr. Roy Crole, Associate Professor of Computer Science—as part of the ongoing collaboration under the B.Eng. Computer Science International Transfer Programme (2+1). The visit included student interactions, academic reviews, faculty discussions, and strategic planning focused on strengthening student mobility and expanding academic initiatives.

ACoN observed World AIDS Day on 1st December with awareness activities including speeches, student skit on stigma, a digital health education session, and a rally.

Visits: The American Citizen Services (ACS) Delegation from the U.S. Consulate General, Hyderabad, visited The Apollo University, Chittoor, and interacted with senior leadership to discuss consular services, international safety guidelines, and citizen support mechanisms.

Workshop: The Department of Psychology, SoHS, organized a one-day workshop on "Inclusive Futures: Disability Awareness" on 12th December, led by Mr. Sharif, Assistant Professor and Head, Dept. of Clinical Psychology & CRC, Davangere to sensitize students, and staff regarding the challenges faced by persons with disabilities and promote inclusion and accessibility.

Alumni Talk: ACoN organized the Emergency Nurse Talks – Apollo Alumni Session on 12th December 2025, where alumnus Mr. A. Steeva shared insights on emergency nursing, trauma care, triage, and critical patient management.

Guest Talk: The Philately Club hosted a guest talk by 13-year-old philatelist Nandan Bhat, who shared his journey in stamp collecting, highlighting its educational value, historical insights, and skill development, inspiring students and faculty alike.